RedSail Technologies, LLC Positioned to Buy PioneerRx® to Transform Community Pharmacy

Spartanburg, SC., November 18, 2020 – RedSail Technologies, LLC has signed an agreement to acquire PioneerRx, LLC. The transaction is currently undergoing a standard regulatory review and will close upon receipt of approval.

PioneerRx, an innovator and leader in pharmacy software for community pharmacy, will join other leading brands that are part of the RedSail Technologies™ family – QS/1®, Integra®, PUBLIQ® Software, and PowerLine®.

“We are determined to transform pharmacy and adding PioneerRx to our family of brands will help accelerate our efforts to develop one of the most clinically advanced and profitable pharmacy networks in the country,” commented RedSail Technologies CEO, Kraig McEwen. McEwen continued, “PioneerRx’s track record speaks for itself – tremendous growth, delighted customers, and best in class service. We are thrilled for them to become part of the RedSail family.”

“PioneerRx is excited about the opportunity to become part of RedSail Technologies as our company continues to drive amazing solutions that are revolutionizing independent pharmacy. PioneerRx’s mission is to save and revitalize independent pharmacy and we believe teaming up with RedSail Technologies will accelerate our ability to do this,” said Jeff Key, PioneerRx President and CEO.

Jeff Key and the PioneerRx leadership team will continue to lead the PioneerRx organization, with operations in Irving, Texas and Shreveport, Louisiana. RedSail Technologies is headquartered in Spartanburg, South Carolina with operations in Anacortes, Washington.

Goldman Sachs served as the exclusive financial advisor to PioneerRx and assisted in structuring and negotiating the transaction on its behalf. Alston & Bird LLP served as legal counsel to PioneerRx. Kirkland & Ellis LLP served as legal counsel to RedSail Technologies.
