RedSail Technologies® Announces Integration Between Axys® and Etactics

(Spartanburg, SC – 7/13/2023) RedSail Technologies, LLC, developer of Axys, is proud to announce the launch of its integration with Etactics, a premier revenue cycle management platform.

The integration of Axys and Etactics is a significant development that will help healthcare providers streamline their billing and financial management processes. With the integration, healthcare providers will be able to access real-time financial data across all their systems, allowing them to make more informed decisions and improve their bottom line.

"Throughout our partnership, RedSail Technologies has been an excellent collaborator. They have consistently demonstrated their responsiveness and ability to meet all deadlines. Their forward-thinking approach has made them a trusted partner for businesses seeking innovative technology solutions," from Nicole Nitzsche, Senior Client Manager.

The Axys integration with Etactics is part of RedSail Technologies' ongoing commitment to delivering cutting-edge technology solutions that help healthcare providers achieve their business objectives. With this integration, RedSail Technologies is helping healthcare providers to navigate an ever-changing healthcare landscape with confidence and stability.

RedSail is currently scheduling future implementations of Axys. For more information and product demos, contact sales@redsailtechnologies.com, or visit www.integrargroup.com/axys.
